

AIESEP (Association Internationale des Ecoles Supérieures d'Education Physique - International Association for Physical Education in Higher Education) is a multilingual and multicultural association of universities, colleges, institutes of physical education (PE) and sport, and individuals who support and contribute to the advancement of sport pedagogy research and scholarship. For more information, see <http://aiesep.org>. The "AIESEP Flash Newsletter" aims to establish contact with people from around the world potentially interested in sport pedagogy.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO PROMOTE YOUR EVENT, PLEASE SEND INFORMATION TO Bryan McCullick (10 lines max, in English, include email address of contact) at bamccull@uga.edu

AIESEP News since 2015 / 09 / 19:

* Is your institution interested in hosting the 2019 AIESEP International Conference? AIESEP is pleased to welcome proposals from interested academic institutions. For informal enquiries and to obtain the required proposal form please contact the AIESEP Secretary General at mary.osullivan@ul.ie. The deadline for proposals has been set for February 29th 2016. A decision will be announced during AIESEP 2016 Conference in Laramie, Wyoming USA.

* MARK YOUR CALENDAR...The 2016 AIESEP Conference will be held June 8-11, 2016 in Laramie, WY (USA) at the University of Wyoming. The site is nestled between two mountain ranges in southeastern Wyoming, delegates will be treated to beautiful scenery and chances to get a taste of the Old West. In conjunction with the 2016 AIESEP Conference, we will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Spectrum of Teaching Styles. Sara Ashworth will provide a keynote address, and other Spectrum educators from around the world will make invited presentations. Visit here for more details: <http://aiesep.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/10/AIESEP-2016-Conference-Brochure.pdf>

* A video of highlights from the 2015 AIESEP Conference in Madrid is now available on the website and via this link: <http://aiesep.org/video-of-aiesep-2015/>

Job Announcements

* The Physical Education Teacher Education (PETE) program at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse (USA) is seeking applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position in PETE within our Department of Exercise and Sport Science and School of Education. The position will start on August 26, 2016. Please see the following link for the announcement and information about how to apply: <https://employment.uwlax.edu/postings/5026>).

* The Department of Kinesiology at the University of Texas at El Paso (USA) is seeking applications for a position as an Assistant Professor in Physical Education Teacher Education (PETE) This position is a tenure-track, nine-month appointment with the possibility of summer teaching. Faculty will teach undergraduate and graduate courses related to pedagogy; advise undergraduate students; mentor master's and doctoral students; engage in scholarly research and publication, including development of grant proposals to attract external funding; and participate in service opportunities within the department, college, university, and profession. Responsibilities may also include developing and maintaining relationships with the local school districts, supervising and placing student interns, and working with other Physical Education Teacher Education (PETE) faculty to prepare students for the profession. The anticipated appointment date is September 2016. Applicants should (1) have an earned doctorate in Kinesiology or closely related field with specialization in pedagogy; (2) be eligible for Texas teacher certification; (3) have a record of or potential for academic scholarship as demonstrated by research publications and the ability to secure extramural research funding; (4) demonstrate a commitment to college or university teaching excellence; and (5) have a history of or potential for active participation and/or leadership roles in campus, community and professional organizations. Public school teaching experience is highly preferred. The successful candidate must have the ability to work effectively with faculty, staff, and students from diverse ethnic, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds. ABD considered. Applicants should submit in hardcopy or electronically: (1) a cover letter, (2) a curriculum vitae, and (3) complete contact information for three professional references. Candidates will be notified before references are contacted. Review of applications will begin on November 1, 2015 and will continue until the position is filled. For more information, contact applications to: Prof. Harry Meeuwsen, Chair PETE Search Committee (meeuwsen@utep.edu).

* The Physical Education program at Oklahoma State University (USA) is seeking a motivated and energetic individual to join our faculty as a full-time, tenure track Assistant Professor of Physical Education. Successful college/university teaching experience in addition to experience supervising student teachers is preferred. Experience in the coaching education is also preferred but not required. Preference will be given to those candidates that can demonstrate a scholarly track record or the potential for such. Informal inquires can be made to Dr. Tim Baghurst (tim.baghurst@okstate.edu) and applications can be submitted online at <https://okstate.csod.com/ats/careersite/JobDetails.aspx?id=1054>.

* The College of Education and Professional Studies, The Department of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Coaching at the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater (USA) invites applications for two (2) nine month full-time tenure track faculty positions, at the rank of Assistant Professor in the area of Physical Education Pedagogy, beginning August 24, 2016. Primary teaching responsibilities involve classes in physical education pedagogy for physical education teachers. Additional responsibilities will include, advising undergraduate and graduate students, research and creative activities, professional and public service, and contributions to the university. An earned doctoral degree (ABD considered) in physical education pedagogy or in a related field. Applicants who are ABD will be considered with the requirement that the doctorate will be completed in the first year of employment. Three years fulltime teaching in school physical education programs is required and university teaching experience in physical education pedagogy is preferred. The deadline to apply is November 16, 2015. Application materials will be evaluated and the most qualified applicants will be invited to participate in the next step of the selection process. Incomplete and/or late application materials will not receive consideration. If you have questions regarding this recruitment, or if you are not able to complete the application online due to a disability or system problem, please contact Courtney or Amy at 262-472-1072 or hirstudent@uww.edu. For questions regarding the position please contact: Penny Portman, Search Chair, 262-472-5643, portmanp@uww.edu. To apply and submit these documents please visit www.uww.edu. Click on the Employment link located in the bottom right corner, then click on the UW-Whitewater Careers link at the top of the page. This Job ID is: 10897.

* The University of Northern Colorado (USA) is seeking to fill an Assistant/Associate Professor of Sport Pedagogy Position. This full-time, nine month, tenure-track position requires an earned doctorate in sport pedagogy or related area. The successful candidate will be expected to demonstrate or have the potential to demonstrate teaching excellence in traditional and online settings, scholarly productivity, and an ability to secure external funding. Emphasis in teacher education, and alternative, broad-based pedagogical approaches to physical education is expected. Ability to teach in a pedagogical content-based methods series is required. Experience teaching K-12 physical education/health and higher education teaching experience is essential. Candidates must have the ability to teach undergraduate and graduate courses, and an interest and commitment to working with diverse populations. Expertise in an area complementary to existing faculty and programs is desired. Additional responsibilities include: advising/mentoring undergraduate and graduate students; recruiting students into sport pedagogy graduate programs (Master's in Sports Coaching, Sport Pedagogy, and Physical Education and Physical Activity Leadership, and Ph.D. in Sport Pedagogy); teaching in a collaborative environment (including online opportunities); creating/maintaining relationships with the public schools; serving on School and University committees; and, performing other duties as required. Preference will be given to candidates who demonstrate competence across all areas above. Screening of applications will begin on November 1, 2015 and will continue until the position is filled. Interested persons should apply online at <https://careers.unco.edu> and select "View/Apply for Faculty Positions" then choose "Assist/Assoc Professor – Sport Pedagogy.” Application documents to be submitted online are a letter of application/cover letter, a curriculum vitae, and the names and contact information of at least three references. A statement of teaching/research interests also should be submitted via the online application process in the “Other Document” category. In addition to the material provided online, please send unofficial or official copies of graduate school transcripts to: Dr. Jennifer Krause, Chair Search and Screen Committee, School of Sport & Exercise Science, University of Northern Colorado, Campus Box 39, 501 20th Street, Greeley, CO 80639.

* The University of Idaho’s (USA) Department of Movement Sciences and the College of Education are pleased to announce the availability of a full-time 9 month tenure track assistant professor faculty position in Physical Activity Pedagogy in the Exercise Science and Health (ESH) Program. A dynamic educator is sought to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in physical education methods, health methods, curriculum/program development in physical activity pedagogy, assessment, and skill theme activity classes. The faculty member will maintain a focused line of scholarly inquiry, publication and grant submission in physical activity pedagogy that is aligned with the healthy active lifestyles mission of the department. Qualified applicants will provide evidence of successful: (1) doctorate (or successful degree completion by May 2016) in Physical Education Teacher Education or Physical Activity Pedagogy, (2) K-12 physical education teaching, (3) university teaching in 2 or more areas of listed coursework (e.g., P.E. Methods, Health Methods, Measurement and Evaluation, Curriculum Development, Skill Theme activity classes), (4) school/outreach collaborations, and (5) potential in scholarly productivity in physical activity pedagogy. Application review will begin November 4th, 2015 and will continue until a suitable applicant pool is identified. Include letter of application, current curriculum vitae, statement of scholarly focus and teaching philosophy, official transcripts, names and contact information for three references. For questions or additional information please contact: Dr. Grace Goc Karp Search Committee Chair, Department of Movement Sciences, PEB 101, University of Idaho, Moscow, ID 83844-2401, (208) 885-2187; gockarp@uidaho.edu.

*The California State University, Long Beach (USA) College of Health and Human Services is pleased to announce an Assistant Professor position in Psychosocial Aspects of Sport. The qualified candidate should have a Ph.D. in Kinesiology with a specialization in Sport Psychology, Psychosocial Aspects of Sport, or related field, Degree at time of application or official notification of completion of the doctoral degree by August 1, 2016, Demonstrated potential to teach, conduct research, and engage in other scholarly and creative activities. Applications, required documentation, and/or requests for information should be addressed to: Tiffanye Vargas, Ph.D. Psychosocial Aspects of Sport Search Committee Chair, California State University, Long Beach, Department of Kinesiology, 1250 Bellflower Boulevard, Long Beach, CA 90840-4901, tiffanye.vargas@csulb.edu, 562.985.4116.

Conferences & General Information

* The 2016 Wingate International Congress of Sport & Exercise Sciences has released the first announcement brochure and the following web link: <http://congress.wincol.ac.il/scientific-committee/>

*The Research on Learning and Instruction in Physical Education Special Interest Group (SIG) of the American Educational Research Association (AERA) invites you to submit a proposal for a presentation during our Invisible College to be held in Washington, D. C. April 9-12, 2016. These informal sessions are meant to enhance our knowledge or raise issues related to our research and profession in general. These sessions are not meant to convey new empirical data but rather provide opportunities to discuss topics we may not otherwise have a chance to discuss as a group. There is no limit on topic or format for the invisible college sessions, so don't be shy to suggest an out-of-the-box topic or session format. It's also important to have good diverse sessions and participants, and to welcome our international members who travel so far to join us. Please send your proposals describing your session topic, objectives, participants, format, and preferred length by November 20, 2015 to boshen@wayne.edu.

* The 6th Teaching Games for Understanding (TGfU) Conference will take place July 25 – 27, 2016, in Cologne, GER. At the same time the 10th German dvs-Sportspielsymposium will be held. International and national scientists will engage in interdisciplinary discussions relevant to team sport topics from fields of sport pedagogics, sport didactics, sport psychology, sport informatics, and training and movement science. In this respect the conference will be an ideal exchange opportunity between scientists, practitioners, coaches and teachers. The keynotes, oral presentations and practical sessions will provide a vivid exchange platform between scientists and practitioners from many different disciplines. For more information please visit: <http://www.tgfu2016.info/>.

* The 11th FIEP European Congress will be held from 14-18 September 2016 in University of Banja Luka in Republika Srpska (BIH). The Congress topic is “Anthropological Aspects of Sports, Physical Education and Recreation. “ Visit the Congress website <http://www.fiep2016unibl.org/>, Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/fiepbanjaluka>, and Twitter https://twitter.com/FIEP_BANJALUKA.

* The World Congress on Women-2015 (WCW-2015) is scheduled November 18-20, 2015 at the Indian Institute of Sciences, Bangalore, IND. The World Congress on Women-2015 is designed for primary care physicians, specialists, nursing and allied health professionals, and physicians in training whose practices include pediatric and gynecology. The course will consist of keynote sessions and concurrent presentations addressing critical issues in pediatric and gynecology, surgery, endocrinology and sexuality. Register soon to avail the early bird discounts. For more details of the conference please visit www.worldcongressonwomen.org, early bird closes on August 15, 2015.

* An international scientific conference titled “Effects of physical activity application to anthropological status with children, youth, and adults” will be held at the University of Belgrade (SRB) 11-12 December 2015. The Conference is aimed at presenting the latest theoretical knowledge and scientific researches on the effects of physical activity application to anthropological status with children, youth and adults, as well as their introduction in physical education practice, in sport, recreation and specialized institutions (persons with special needs, police forces, & army). Application for participation and submission of abstracts: November 1, 2015. Deadline for sending final papers: December 11, 2015. The abstract should have a maximum of up to 300 words (Times New Roman, 11pt, single space (½ page)).