

AIESEP

FLASH NEWSLETTER

February 04, 2014

Number 102

AIESEP (Association Internationale des Ecoles Supérieures d'Education Physique – International Association for Physical Education in Higher Education) is a multilingual and multicultural association of universities, colleges, institutes of physical education (PE and sport), and individuals who support and contribute to the advancement of sport pedagogy research and scholarship. For more information, see <http://www.aiesep.org>. The "AIESEP Flash Newsletter" aims to establish with people from around the world potentially interested in sport pedagogy.

If you want to promote your event, please send information to Prof. Marc CLOES (10 lines max, in English, include email address of contact) at:
Marc.Cloes@ulg.ac.be

News since 2014/01/17:

* The AIESEP Flash Newsletter is published regularly in order to share as much info as possible with the international community and underline the dynamism of our association. The previous 100 issues are still available on the AIESEP Website. Do not hesitate to communicate your own news if you consider that they might interest people involved in the pedagogical encounter and/or physical educators' preparation in the following fields: PE teaching, sports coaching, fitness, outdoor education, health and leisure physical activity ...

* AIESEP is on Facebook. Just "search" for AIESEP or click this link:
<http://www.facebook.com/pages/Association-Internationale-des-Ecoles-SuperieuresdEducation-Physique/176848622384485> Join the 544 friends who already liked

* The list of the applications for the next AIESEP Board of Directors is available on the members' corner (see Information). Several reports were also posted on that page as well as the last list of the members that will be allowed to vote during the General Assembly. Do not forget that mandate forms are available for members who would not attend to the 2014 World Congress (February 12, 2014).

* The 2014 AIESEP World Congress will be held in Auckland (NZL) February 10-13. The theme of the Congress is "Educating for active healthy citizens." Visit the program on: www.aiesep2014.com

* Additionally, there will be a Pre-Congress Symposium before the AIESEP World Congress on February 9, 2014 in Auckland, NZL organized by the TGfU Special Interest Group "Using TGfU to promote active and healthy citizens". This special one-day symposium will focus on the latest research and advances in teaching games framed by TGfU approaches. It provides a special opportunity for teachers to mix with leading TGfU experts from around the world. For more information please visit www.tgfu.info

* On 16-17 February 2014 (immediately after the AIESEP World congress in Auckland), the University of Canterbury (NZL) will organize an International Symposium on Physical Education & Sport Studies 'Physical Education and Sport: Current dilemmas and future possibilities'. Visit www.education.canterbury.ac.nz/sportpe for further details.

* First call for the 2014 AIESEP Specialist Seminar that will be organized in Timisoara (Romania) on November 7-9, 2014. The theme of this specialist seminar is 'The Pedagogical Side of Outdoor and Leisure Activities'. Its purpose is to bring together experts in sport pedagogy, as well as specialists involved in outdoor and leisure activities, in order to create a space for reflection and discussion on how to adapt to society's increasing interest in this area. The provisional program is available on http://www.aiesep.ulg.ac.be/pages/future_event.php. Information by Prof. Adrian Nagel, Decan Facultatea de Educatie Fizica si Sport, Universitatea de Vest Timisoara (adrian.nagel@e-uvt.ro). The specific website will be open very soon.

Conferences & General Information

* The organization committee of EIPAF 2014 invite you to submit your scientific work for the 1st International Symposium on PA promotion in children and adolescents. This event will be held at the University Zaragoza, Huesca (Spain) on April 3-4, 2014. This symposium is an opportunity to share the latest findings about PA promotion research in children and adolescents. We would like to generate a space where researchers can exchange their experiences and create an occasion to design future lines of investigation. Poster submission on February 14; Symposium's deadlines: Inscription on March 21. For more information, visit: <http://efypaf.unizar.es/recursos/EIPAF2014/presentacion.html>

* On May 27th – 30th, 2014, The International Society for Comparative Physical Education and Sport (ISCPES) will hold its 19th biennial conference in Moscow, Russia at the Russian State University of Physical Education, Sport, Youth and Tourism, Moscow. The theme of the conference is "Nation's Health: A System of Lifelong Physical Education as a Foundation of Public Health". The conference presentations will address current educational practice and future directions in physical education and sport across the world. The conference focuses on the nation health and life-long physical education. It serves as the platform for professionals from all continents to meet together and discuss various issues in sport and physical education through a comparative perspective. The conference will accept papers related to teaching, coaching, and administration/management in physical education and sport in a broad range of areas. For more information, please contact either Dr. Elena Komova (ekomova@rambler.ru); Yan-Chi-ian Leong (yan85921@gmail.com) or visit the conference website (<http://c14.sportedu.ru/content/iscpes-congress-moscow>).

* The 7th International Conference Movement and Health will be held on June 2-4, 2014 in Olomouc (Czech Republic). The theme is: 'Physical Activity of Children and Adolescents: Determinants and Outcomes'. The purpose of the conference is to bring together researchers, professionals and other interested persons in the health, exercise and sport sciences, preventive medicine, and physical activities management with special interest in the population of children and adolescents. The Conference will be divided into eight sections (Environmental Factors of Physical Activity ; Movement in the Development of Children; Physical Activity and Sport in Children and Adolescents with Special Needs; Sedentary Behavior in Children and Adolescents ; Experiential Education in Movement and Health ...). Important dates: Deadline for abstracts on February 15, 2014; Notification of acceptance and deadline for early registration on March 15, 2014. All information on the conference website: www.mandh.upol.cz . Specific contacts: Dr. Michal Kudláček (mandh2014@upol.cz).

* World Conference on Physical Education and Sport: Challenges and Future Directions. July 24-28, 2014 Shanghai, Peoples Republic of China. The conference will address current educational practice and future directions of teaching in physical education and sport across the world. The purpose is for attendees to gain an understanding and appreciation of the unique and shared challenges and opportunities for quality P-12, community, and university physical education and sport programming that exist around the world. For more information and a call for papers please see the following website: <http://www.2014conference.com.cn/>

* On September 4 -5, 2014, the International Association of Physical Education and Sport for Girls and Women (IAPESGW) will celebrate the IAPESGW Regional event 'International Gender and Sport Symposium' that will take place at Hacettepe University, Ankara - Turkey. The theme is 'International Gender Issues and Sport'. The aims of the symposium is to advance the international dialogue around women and sport; to improve the dialogue around women and sport internationally with a special focus on the Middle East and Europe; to reinforce the collaboration between researchers and practitioners in women and sport in the world. The topics of the symposium are: a) Gender policies and sport participation; b) Religion, ethnicity, diversity and sport, c) Leadership and sport; d) Gender equity in physical education; e) Women health and physical activity; f) Safety and inclusion for girls and women in sport. For information, please contact: Symposium Secretary Pınar Öztürk pinarozturk@hacettepe.edu.tr or Dr. Canan Koca canankoca@hacettepe.edu.tr More information is available on the congress webpage: www.iapesgw2014.hacettepe.edu.tr The IAPESGW web page is: www.iapesgw.org

* "When Sports came to Hanover". History and Reception of a Transfer of Cultures between England and Northern Germany from the 18th to the 20th Centuries. 12th Conference of the Niedersächsisches Institut für Sportgeschichte in Hannover, Germany (NISH). From 1714 to 1837 the Electorate of Hanover and the Kingdom of Great Britain were linked by a single monarch. The tercentenary will be celebrated in Lower Saxony (capital Hanover) in 2014. There will be many events, but our Conference will deal with the sports related aspects of this cultural transfer in a wide sense from the 17th to the 20th centuries. The Conference will take place September, 27th and 28th 2014 in the History Department of the Leibnitz University Hannover. Languages: English & German. Proposals consisting of an explanatory abstract (max. 600 words) and a short vita should be sent electronically to info@Nish.de until 15 June 2014. Authors of accepted abstracts do not have to pay a participation fee. Selected papers will be published in a (peer reviewed) edited book.

* The University of Wolverhampton (UK) is delighted to announce it will be hosting the 5th annual European Sport Development Network conference. The one day conference will take place in the heart of England, at the Performance Hub on the Walsall Campus on Tuesday 9th September 2014. The conference will be delivered in partnership with the Sport and Recreation Alliance, the Black Country BeActive Partnership, and Sport 4 Life, reflecting the work of all stakeholders working in the field of sports development. Ruth Holdaway. Adopting the theme of 'Opportunity through sport', the network is calling for papers relating to the following conference sub-themes: Community led sports development ; The role of sport development in addressing health inequalities; Programme sustainability in sports development – ensuring long term outcomes; Partnerships in sport ; Behaviour change ; Intergenerational sports development ... Abstracts should be sent to ESDN2014@wlv.ac.uk by 14 March 2014. A selection of contributing authors will be invited to contribute to an edited collection of conference proceedings at a later date. For more information email ESDN2014@wlv.ac.uk or visit <http://www.wlv.ac.uk/ESDN2014>

* On October 17-18, 2014, the University of Liege, Belgium, will organize the International Congress on Children's Physical Activity and Sport. This event is considered the 2nd European congress on physical activity and health among children. Reflections and discussions will focus on the key period between three and nine years, when children start to take part in organized physical and sporting activities. This is a crucial age range because this is when relevant and appropriate practice can establish the solid foundations which children need to encourage them to take pleasure in sport and to practice physical activity in the long term. This congress is a unique opportunity to meet international experts and to share your knowledge, experience and skills through oral presentations, posters and videos. Three major questions will be addressed throughout the congress: (1) How important is physical activity during childhood for encouraging a lifetime of physical activity or sport? (2) What factors encourage or discourage children's physical activity and their future involvement in sport? (3) What type of activity should children undertake and how can long-term involvement be encouraged? Abstracts of papers from the congress will be published in a special edition of 'Science & Sports' (IF = .49). For more information please contact Prof. Boris Jidovtseff on ciapse2014@ulg.ac.be or visit the congress website at www.ciapse2014.com.

* On November 17-21, 2014 will be held the CUBAMOTRICIDAD 2014. This major scientific meeting will take place in Havana (Cuba). It will gather several events: (1) 3rd World Forum of Physical Education and School Sport; (2) 2nd International Workshop of Physical Activity and Aging; (3) 4th World Biennial of Psychomotricity and Children Development; (4) International Seminar of Adapted Sports, Horse Therapy and Intervention Techniques. Summoned by the National Institute of Sports, Physical Education and Recreation (INDER) of the Republic of Cuba, and the World Association of Stimulation, Education and Children Development (OMEEDI), under the auspices of prestigious national and international organizations and bodies, the participation of top level experts and the exchange with the Cuban community will also be an excellent opportunity to strengthen the friendship and professional cooperation bonds. Contacts by emails (convencion@inder.cu; edufisysalud@gmail.com; cubactivaysaludable@gmail.com). Info on the Websites (<http://cubamotricidad.inder.cu>; <https://www.facebook.com/groups/487879424561930/>).

* The international Contemporary Ethnography Across the Disciplines hui (conference) will take place at the University of Waikato, New Zealand, from 25-28 November 2014. Since the "narrative turn" in the social sciences in the 1980s, the uses of storytelling, ethnographic practice and methods, and ethnography itself have expanded. Those who study group behaviours and practices in situ (which includes health professionals, teachers, coaches, and other pedagogists) will be interested in this conference whose foci is contemporary ethnography and ethnographic practice. For more information on keynote speakers, workshops, the CFP, housing and registration, please go to CEAD.org.nz.

* Prof. Branislav Antala, FIEP Europe President, invite all scholars to visit the new FIEP Europe profiles in Facebook and Twitter (FIEP Europe Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/fiep.europe>; FIEP Europe Twitter: <https://twitter.com/FiepEurope>).

Prof. Marc CLOES
Secretary General of AIESEP
Association Internationale des Ecoles Supérieures d'Education Physique
International Association of Physical Education in Higher Education

Department of Sport and Rehabilitation Sciences
University of Liege
Allee des Sports, 4 Bat. B-21
B-4000 LIEGE
Belgium
Tél. : +32 (0)4 366.38.80
Fax. : +32 (0)4 366. 29.01

www.aiesep.org

