

AIESEP (Association Internationale des Ecoles Supérieures d'Education Physique - International Association for Physical Education in Higher Education) is a multilingual and multicultural association of universities, colleges, institutes of physical education (PE) and sport, and individuals who support and contribute to the advancement of sport pedagogy research and scholarship. For more information, see <http://aiesep.org>. The "AIESEP Flash Newsletter" aims to establish contact with people from around the world potentially interested in sport pedagogy.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO PROMOTE YOUR EVENT, PLEASE SEND INFORMATION TO Bryan McCullick (10 lines max, in English, include email address of contact) at flash@aiesp.org

AIESEP News since 2017 / 6 / 15:

* The 2017 AIESEP World Conference will be held November 7-10, 2017 in Gosier, Guadeloupe (FRA) hosted by the Université des Antilles. The keynote speakers are: Peter Hastie (Auburn University, United-States): Promoting inclusion in physical education (Sub-theme 1 : Diversity in Physical Education and Sport: Opportunities and Challenges for Sport Pedagogy); Cheryl Michelle Walter (Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University, South-Africa): Lessons from South Africa: fractures in the rainbow (Sub-theme 2 : Learner Identities within Physical Education and Sport : Overtaking Inequities); Cécilia Borges (University of Montréal, Canada): Teachers Knowledge and Cultural Competencies in Teacher Education (Sub-theme 3 : Cultural Competencies in Teacher Education); Marc Theeboom (Vrij Universiteit Brussel): Some alternative facts on inclusion and sport (Sub-theme 4 : Inclusion Policies within Sport Practices). Follow this link to the webpage of the 2017 AIESEP World Conference, where a short abstract of each keynote is posted:

<https://aiesepguadeloupe2017.wordpress.com/keynote-speakers/>

* The AIESEP special interest group (SIG) for early years has been created in 2015 and organized already several activities. Its aim is to create an active network of researchers/academics with an interest in issues relating to early childhood education (or referred to as early years), physical activity and health, physical education and physical development. The vision of this group is for researchers, scholars, practitioners to come together within the SIG with a focus on sharing findings, generating collaborative opportunities for research together, to allow for international comparisons as well as collaborations. More information is now available on the AIESEP website:

<http://aiesep.org/aiesep-sig-for-early-years/>

* The AIESEP World Congress will be held July 25-28th 2018 at the University of Edinburgh (SCO). The Conference themes are: Physical education, policy engagement and economic liberalism, Empowering practitioners and supporting professional learning, Transformative learning and teaching in physical education and sport pedagogy, Innovative perspectives on physical education, physical activity, health and wellbeing and sport. There is a twitter handle where you can keep up to date with all the latest developments @UoE_AIESEP2018. We will use twitter to launch the website in August. We anticipate that the call for abstracts will go out in September 2017 with registration opening in January 2018. Representatives from Edinburgh will be attending AIESEP 2017 in Guadeloupe and deliver a presentation about our plans for the conference.

* The AIESEP family continues to grow. If you wish to join AIESEP complete an application form via the AIESEP website at <http://aiesep.org/membership/becoming-a-member/> Remember, institutional membership entitles you to discounted conference registration fees at AIESEP events for three members of your institution. You can keep up to date with AIESEP news by following us on Twitter: www.twitter.com/aiesep (@aiesep) and on Facebook.

Conferences & General Information

* The United States Sports Academy, America's only freestanding accredited sports University, invites AIESEP members to read and contribute to our peer-reviewed journal, The Sport Journal (ISSN: 1543-9518), which we have published since 1998. The Academy provides the online journal at no cost as part of its educational mission. Our web address is www.thesportjournal.org/. The Academy is an independent, non-profit, accredited, special mission sports university created to serve the nation and the world with programs in instruction, research and service. The role of the Academy is to prepare men and women for careers in the profession of sports. The Academy is based in Daphne, Ala. For more information, call (251) 626-3303 or visit www.ussa.edu. The Sport Journal is an electronic, peer-reviewed scientific journal addressing current issues in sport, published with the goal of advancing sport knowledge through research and expertise. Encompassing multiple facets of sport, including sports management, sports coaching, sports studies, sports medicine, and sports fitness and health, The Sport Journal seeks to provide readers with up-to-date information comprising advances in all areas of sport. Published articles include both detailed scientific methods and guided conclusions geared towards sports professionals, allowing for immediate application in the field.

*Vonlanthen Group Sports Events invites you to the 3rd Annual Football Analytics and Performance Summit, September 7-8, 2017. This year event will be held in Amsterdam (NED) with a contribution from AFC Ajax. We have this year some world class experts who will be not only presenting their latest case-studies, but also leading master classes and interactive sessions. The Summit will be focusing on the best practices in data, video and performance & tactical analysis and the most successful strategies of implementing analytics in modern football. As a reminder, the number of seats is limited and the earlier you book, the more you'll save. To register, send via email filled form on the last second page of the agenda. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact: Marek Lesak, Marketing Manager, Phone: +420 210 022 042, Email: marek.lesak@vonlanthengroup.com, Web: www.vonlanthengroup.com.

*Upcoming one day conference. It is 25 years since the publication of Sheila Scraton's (1992) pivotal text 'Shaping Up to Womanhood'. To mark this significant contribution, we are holding a one day conference on September 11th 2017 at Leeds Beckett University to celebrate socio-critical work around gender, young people, PE, sport and physical activity. We are pleased to announce that Professor Sheila Scraton and Dr. Emma Rich are our confirmed keynotes, alongside a programme of exciting and insightful parallel sessions delivered by established scholars and early career researchers from our international community. We would love to see you at this event and attach a flyer for your reference – we would also appreciate you forwarding this on to anyone in your networks who you think will be interested. The link for conference registration is here: www.leedsbeckett.ac.uk/genderpeconf. In conjunction with the conference we are pleased to announce a Special Edition of Sport, Education and Society - Gender, Physical Education and Active Lifestyles: Contemporary Developments and Ongoing Challenges. The call for papers and full submission details can be found here: <http://explore.tandfonline.com/cfp/ed/cses-cfp-si-gender-pe-and-active-lifestyles>. We would love to see you at this event and/or contributing to the Special Edition.

* The 3rd Int'l Conference on Sport Science and Physical Education \(SSPE 2017\) will be a valuable and important platform for inspiring international and interdisciplinary exchange at the forefront of Sport Science and Physical Education. SSPE 2017 is one of the special tracks within the 7th International Conference on Creative Education (CCE 2017). This conference will bring together academicians, researchers, engineers, and technologists from all over the world. On behalf of Organizing Committee, we cordially invite you to take this opportunity to join us for academic exchange and visit the cosmopolitan city of Guilin.