GUIDELINES FOR ELECTION OF THE AIESEP BOARD OF DIRECTORS 2026 – 2030

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

Introduction

The AIESEP Board of Directors has 14 members. These are divided into two categories:

1. Representatives of institutional members (n = 6)
2. Representatives of individual members (n = 6)

The AIESEP President and Secretary General are elected by all eligible AIESEP members (institutional and individual), prior to the election of the Individual and Institutional Board of Directors, at the AIESEP General Assembly during the AIESEP World Congress. The 6 institutional board members are elected by institutional members and the 6 individual board members are elected by individual members.

NOTE:

- To be eligible to vote in the general assembly, member registration must be processed by May 1st 2026 and be valid through the duration of the AIESEP 2026 conference.
- To be eligible to apply to serve on the Board of Directors, member registration must be processed by May 1st, 2026, and be valid through the duration of the AIESEP 2026 conference.

Expectations for AIESEP Board Members

Members interested in being elected to the AIESEP Board of Directors should bear in mind that there are certain expectations that board members must strive to fulfil:

- As a representative of a specific group of members (institutional or individual), each board member is expected to bring his/her expertise to the service of these members in order to achieve the aims of the association.
- Each board member is expected to demonstrate his/her involvement through concrete actions throughout the term of office.
- Each board member must ensure his/her AIESEP membership is paid, without interruption, throughout the term of office.
- Each board member is expected to attend the meetings of the Board of Directors and the General Assembly and take a genuine interest in the affairs of the Association;

- It is expected that each board member participate actively in specific projects assigned by the Board of Directors.
- Representatives of institutional members can mandate other affiliates of their institution to attend the meetings of the Board of Directors, or other official meetings on behalf of AIESEP.
- Each board member is expected to respond to messages sent by the Secretary General concerning votes on topics which arise between board meetings.
- Board members are expected to promote the association through their national and international networks as well as to defend AIESEP's interests whenever it is needed or possible.
- Board members are expected to behave ethically and demonstrate loyalty towards the association and its members.

The Election Process

All details about the process are available on the AIESEP Website (members' corner).

- The Secretary General informs all members by email about the process (requirements, deadlines, etc.) at least two months prior to the General Assembly (April 14th, 2026).
- The deadline for applications to the Board of Directors is May 1st 2026. No late applications will be accepted.
- Prior to the General Assembly, electronic voting access will be provided (via email) to all eligible members.
- Prior to the Individual and Institutional Board of Director elections, all eligible members elect the President and the General Secretary.
- To be elected as President or Secretary General, members need to have completed at least one term (4years) on the Board of Directors. This does not necessarily need to be the term immediately preceding the General Assembly.
- No member of the Board of Directors can assume the same office for more than two terms.
- The outgoing Board of Directors is responsible for proposing to the General Assembly at least one candidate for each of the offices of President and Secretary General.
- The executive committee comprises the President, the Secretary General, the Treasurer and Vice-President. The Treasurer and Vice-President are elected by the Board of Directors after the General Assembly.

Election Rules -Individual Members

- Individual members interested in being elected to the board of directors should submit an application form (Form B), respecting the rules and deadline.

- In order for the application from of an individual member to be considered, the member must
 1. be a paid member of AIESEP on the application deadline (May 1st 2026) and
 2. have attended at least one AIESEP activity during the two previous years.
- Due to the voting being live online, there will be no proxy votes
- For voting during the General Assembly, each individual member will have received a link to vote from Vero voting systems.
- The individual members standing for election will be expected to present themselves, briefly, prior to the vote (via online video submission due May 1st 2026).
